

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 24, 1882.

THE Legislature is getting along very slowly with its work, and all the really important legislation is yet to be passed upon—the apportionment, penitentiary, railroads, revenue laws and appropriations for the charitable institutions. The session will probably last until the middle of April.

THE regular annual reunion of the Mexican War Veterans was held at Lexington on the 22nd inst., with an attendance of about one hundred. A committee was appointed to memorialize congress for a pension to all soldiers of that war. An address was delivered by Col. J. G. Craddock, Gen. S. S. Fry and others.

THE Government is making some little headway in the Star Route cases and appears to be pushing the prosecution in good faith. In addition to the contractors who have been indicted for conspiracy, a number of other persons who made false affidavits when they became bondsmen for some of the route agents, have been indicted also. At all events the thieves seem to have good cause for alarm.

THE press despatches state that the flood caused terrible destruction at Lawrenceburg, Ind. The waters broke through the river banks flooding the town to such an extent that more than two thousand people were driven from their homes. Without a sufficient supply of food, and exposure to the inclement weather has brought much misery and suffering. The loss of property will be at least three hundred thousand dollars.

JUSTICE, it appears, is at last to be done to Gen. Fitz John Porter, of the army. It is now announced that the President and Cabinet have decided in favor of his restoration to the army, with the rank of Colonel. The question of back pay has not yet been settled and is now before the Attorney General for his opinion. If paid in full it will amount to about $115,000, which is a small recompense for the suffering General Porter has been subjected to through the injustice done him. When restored to the army, and all his disabilities have been removed, he will probably ask to be placed upon the list of retired officers.

"The Shot-Gun Policy."

The calumnious charge against a worthy professional class, embodied in the subjoined extract, did not originate, as some persons might suppose with a Bourbon or Democratic organ in the South, but first appeared in the Atlantic Monthly—the ablest and toniest exponent of Radicalism in the North. It is taken from an article in the February number entitled "Studies in the South."

"After supper the woman went away with the baby, and as we rose from the table I saw a double-barreled shot-gun standing in the corner of the room, and inquired whether there was much game in that part of the country. 'Dat ain't fuh no game. Dat's fuh dem damned niggah preachers.' 'What's the matter with the preachers?' 'Spouse I want 'em comin' 'roun hyuh to see my wife, when I's 'way from home? De low-down hogs! Dey makes de livin' gwian 'roun' an' eatin' an' eatin' an' dey fool de wimmen twel dey hain't no sense.' 'Would you not allow a preacher to come to your house?' 'Let him wait twel I axes de pleasuh ob his comp'ny, I done tol' em all 'roun' hyuh, I let 'em know when I wants 'em. My wife b'longs to me, an' I's gwian to luk out fuh dem slick houn's wiv dat shot-gun.'"

This man's description applies justly to some of the colored preachers in most parts of the South. They are ignorant, fat, lazy, and licentious. Many of them use intoxicating liquors freely. The influence of such men is of course a curse to the colored people, and is the cause of much immorality among the married women who are members of the "colored churches." But it would be most unjust to allow my readers to infer that colored ministers generally belong to this class. Here, as in description of all classes of people in the South, discrimination is necessary.

THOUSANDS of men are on constant guard along the levees between Memphis and Vicksburg, using every possible means to strengthen their power of resistance, and elevate their crests to prevent the water from inundating the whole country. The whole shore line between Memphis and Vicksburg on the Mississippi side, and the whole eastern shore of Arkansas are either under water or threatened with inundation. The waste of property by the great submersion is outside the limits of present computation. Navigation of the river itself is regarded by steamboatmen as dangerous. Government lights along the river are maintained with admirable regularity. These lights prove of incalculable benefit to steamboatmen now since all bank marks have disappeared.

Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters.

Frazier's Root Bitters are not a dram-shop whisky beverage, but are strictly medicinal in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerves and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity.

For dizziness, rush of blood to the head tending to apoplexy, dyspepsia, fever and ague, dropsy, pimples and blotches, scrofulous humors and sores, tetter, ring worm, white swelling, erysipelas, sore eyes and for young men suffering from weakness or debility caused from imprudence, and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.

Dr. Frazier: I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for dyspepsia, dizziness, weakness and kidney disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as I ever did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest blessings.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A Sure Cure Found at Last—No One Need Suffer!

A sure cure for bilious, bleeding, itching and ulcerated piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams (an Indian remedy,) called Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of twenty-five or thirty years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electricities do more harm than good. Williams' Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed,) acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for piles, itching of the private parts, and nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. Williams' Pile Ointment: I have used scores of pile cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave me such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment.
